Jefferson Lines Expands Service West Between Montana and Washington

Minneapolis, MN - Jefferson Lines is excited to announce the expansion of its bus service into the western area of the United States. Starting January 17th, 2018, Jefferson Lines will run new schedules between Missoula, MT and Spokane, WA. The new service will extend Jefferson's network and start servicing the people in Washington and Idaho.

Kevin Pursey, Director of Marketing at Jefferson Lines, states: "Our new routes will extend the Jefferson network to now include the community of Spokane Washington and two stops in Idaho. As one of the nation's largest motor coach operators, Jefferson is committed to investing in our network to provide residents convenient connections to other cities and locations across the country. We will now add Idaho and Washington to that commitment of excellent transportation service"

New schedule details and pick up locations will connect with existing Jefferson schedules to maximize convenience for travelers. In addition, Jefferson will now connect with Flathead transit in Missoula, which provides daily service to northwest Montana.
